Clark Road Corridor & Community-Commercial Development Areas

The Clark Road Corridor and Community Development Areas include all properties in Town, except single-family residential land uses and properties that are already included in an established geographical design area.