

The Town of Paradise Invites Applications for POLICE TRAINEE

The Town of Paradise is situated in the western foothills of the Sierra Nevada Mountains spanning 18 ½ square miles. Our elevation ranges from 1700 to 2200 feet. Located about 90 miles north of Sacramento and 7 miles east of Chico; Prior to the Camp Fire, the Town's population was approximately 27,000 with another 20,000 living in the adjacent unincorporated areas. After clean up and rebuilding, Paradise will once again be a beautiful community offering a scenic and semi-rural lifestyle surrounded by picturesque canyons and beautiful mountains.

Paradise is known for its four distinct season climates. The Town's altitude keeps Paradise generally cooler than the valley floor during the summer and above the valley fog in the winter. The winters offer an occasional light and beautiful snowfall. Paradise averages 257 sunny days per year.

Paradise offers its residents a rare combination of advantages. Recreational opportunities are plentiful as this beautiful countryside offers outdoor activities such as hiking, camping, fishing, golfing and many family friendly activities. For water sport enthusiasts, Lake Oroville recreational area is within minutes of Paradise.

The Town of Paradise was incorporated in 1979. The Town of Paradise is a general law city in Butte County, California and is governed as a Council/Manager form of municipal government.

The Paradise Police Department proudly serves a supportive, diverse community. The Police Department works around the clock to protect lives and property within the Town of Paradise.

Our dedicated staff is committed to providing exceptional public safety services and taking a leadership role in building community partnerships to make our community a better, safer place to live, work and play.
