

The Town of Paradise Invites Applications for POLICE OFFICER (POST Academy Graduate)

The Town of Paradise is situated in the western foothills of the Sierra Nevada Mountains spanning 18 ½ square miles. The Town's population is approximately 27,000 with another 20,000 living in the adjacent unincorporated areas. Our elevation ranges from 1700 to 2200 feet. Located about 90 miles north of Sacramento and 7 miles east of Chico; Paradise is a beautiful community offering a scenic and semi-rural lifestyle surrounded by picturesque canyons, beautiful mountains, streams and tall pines.

Paradise is known for its four distinct season climates. The Town's altitude keeps Paradise generally cooler than the valley floor during the summer and above the valley fog in the winter. The winters offer an occasional light and beautiful snowfall. Paradise averages 257 sunny days per year.

Paradise offers its residents a rare combination of advantages. From great natural beauty and charm, affordable homes, a variety of recreational pursuits, to cultural activities and shopping. Recreational opportunities are plentiful as this beautiful countryside offers outdoor activities such as hiking, camping, fishing, golfing and many family friendly activities. For water sport enthusiasts, Lake Oroville recreational area is within minutes of Paradise.

Paradise has public, private and charter school systems that provide excellent curriculum for our young residents. For those adults wanting to further their education, Butte Community College and California State University at Chico are within close proximity.

The Town of Paradise was incorporated in 1979. The Town of Paradise is a general law city in Butte County, California and is governed as a Council/Manager form of municipal government. The Town of Paradise is a progressive, full-service municipal government.

The Paradise Police Department proudly serves a supportive, diverse community. The Police Department works around the clock to protect lives and property within the Town of Paradise. Our dedicated staff is committed to providing exceptional public safety services and taking a leadership role in building community partnerships to make our community a better, safer place to live, work and play. Paradise is the second largest city in Butte County and is considered one of the safest communities in the area.
