I believe for

Join me in restoring the paradise in Paradise. For too long our town has been on a downward spiral, from the rise in crime, misuse of Measure C money, unnecessary regulations, or the destruction of Skyway through downtown. I promise my leadership will be responsive to the public's needs by using fresh ideas with a new face in town hall. My name is Mike Zuccolillo, and I am running to restore common sense and public trust in local government. I am a concerned citizen, local business owner, husband with 3 beautiful children, and deeply involved in our community.

So Who am I? I'm someone who can make tough decisions, will hold government accountable, a person who will keep the financial line and not come back to taxpayers seeking more and more money. I am a good listener, fiscally conservative and not controlled by the good old boys' club. I promise to make decisions that are best for our town and will always remember I answer to the public. So if you are not happy with the status quo, I ask for your vote. Visit IChooseMike.com, like me on facebook or call me personally at 876-4171 to learn more about me.
