Your statement and word count begin here:

I bring a diverse background. I am a born and raised Californian. I graduated from CSU – Chico with a BS in Healthcare Administration. I spent 21 years in the Air Force performing duties in Law Enforcement and Recruiting. After retiring, I opened a retail business in Paradise. I was an Executive Director for a Residential Care Facility and I am now in Real Estate. A Paradise resident for 24 years, my wife and I raised our children here. 77

After the Campfire I found it my personal mission to help with the recovery of Paradise. I started by joining the Board of Directors for the Gold Nugget Museum, then I was appointed to the Paradise Irrigation District (PID) Board as the Division 5 Director. I serve on several committees including PID/Town of Paradise Liaison, Administration & Personnel, Finance, Ad Hoc Negotiating Committee, ACWA/JPIA. I also serve on the Paradise Association of Realtors Board and am an active Rotarian.

My positions and life experiences have gained me knowledge in areas including budget development, union negotiations, marketing, formulation and evaluation of policy, legislative decision-making, and more. When I do something, I go all in. I am dedicated to the rebuilding of Paradise.
